

Department Order No. 6

Headquarters Department of Maryland: April 9, 2006

1. Whereas the use of the Internet has continued to expand and change the way we operate.
2. And Whereas, the proper use of said Internet has been shown to pay significant dividends.
3. And Whereas, all camps within the Maryland Department should have at least basic web presence that is linked to the Department web site.
4. And Whereas, those camps that do have a web presence should update them regularly.
5. Now therefore I, James R. Hanby, Sr. Commander of the Maryland Department Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War do hereby request that all camps take steps to create at least a basic web presence including the current officers of the camp, meeting dates, and other pertinent information. I further order that all camps currently having a web presence review their sites and update them with the current information within a period of two weeks or advise the Department Commander as to why their site should not be deleted from the listing on the Department web site.

In Fraternity, Charity, and Loyalty,
James R. Hanby, Sr. Maryland Department Commander
