By the authority vested in me as Commander of the Department of the Chesapeake it is hereby ordered as follows:

An evening meal will be provided featuring picnic fare and a few period “vittles” – please bring a camp chair along any adult beverages you choose. An evening campfire and story-telling will round out the day’s activities. Brothers so inclined are invited to camp over Saturday night. Large grassy areas with nearby running water are available for tenting.

Special note: No official business of the Department will be conducted – the gathering is simply an opportunity exclusively for Brothers to get to know one another, relax in the country, and break bread together in the spirit of our forefathers.
